

Frequently Asked Questions

What will Munro Thompson be called?	From 3 October 2023, we will be officially operating under the banner “Shand Taylor Lawyers incorporating Munro Thompson Lawyers”. However, we want to assure you that for the most part, we expect it will feel like business as usual for our clients. Each of our current team members, including Terry, have accepted continuing roles with Shand Taylor Lawyers and our usual staff will continue to look after any current matters you have with us.
How can I contact Munro Thompson?	You may continue to send emails to the same addresses that you have been previously using, but you will notice that replies from our team will come from '@shandtaylor.com.au'.
Will you be moving offices?	Our Sunshine Coast office address will NOT be changing. You will still find us and the team at Level 2, 77 Mooloolaba Esplanade, Mooloolaba. However, Shand Taylor Lawyers also have an office in Fortitude Valley, Brisbane, and you will note their address is also listed on any correspondence you receive after 3 October 2023. We are excited to now be able to offer you the opportunity to see a conveyancer or lawyer, or return documents at the Brisbane office, where this is more convenient to you.
Do you have a new phone number ?	Our office number will not change. Please keep in mind that after 3 October 2023 however, you may notice that the phone will be answered by “Shand Taylor Lawyers incorporating Munro Thompson”– and please be assured that you have reached the right place.
Who can I contact if I require further information?	Please feel free to contact Terry, Annie or any of the team you are used to speaking to at Munro Thompson Lawyers.